It is used in Cosmetics and artificial appliances to skin and complexion, that we must despair for pores and blemishes, fast to prove and healthy blood. Let us dress with a salve and touch skin, save value and health, and the skin will be healthy and clear. It is the secret, the hair break and falling off, teeth loosening, skin breaking, undergrowth and wrinkles, and the breaking of the hair, and the breaking of the hair.

RENOVATING RESOLVENT

With the purpose of purifying and creating healthy blood, and removing the elements of disease, it will cause your natural health, and be treated with much more than the ordinary medicine, and the skin will be healthy and clear. It is the secret, the hair break and falling off, teeth loosening, skin breaking, undergrowth and wrinkles, and the breaking of the hair, and the breaking of the hair.

It will be to remember the RENOVATING in water for the skin from one to two days, (see Modern's Almanac for 1900).

RENOVATING RESOLVENT is sold by Druggists, Chemists, and General Merchants. It is sold by W. L. RAY, and Company, Merchants, 515 Broadway, New York.

Mr. Ward (Rep., N. Y.) presented a resolution of a public meeting in Corning, concerning the action of the British as toward American citizens, and demanded recall of Minister Adams as a Consul of the same subject. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

In the New York Legislature, on the start, the following resolution passed
Mr. Murphy :

Resolved—If the Senate occur, that store and members of Congress from it and they are hereby requested to from the Executive the protection of the States Government to foreign-born while traveling in Europe on pleasure and, and insist on the immediate American citizens now confined in Brit-tains without process of law.

The rules were suspended and the resolved adopted.

[That is how to do it. Let the Talk course will give Senate and something more patriotic and profit than trying to plunge the country war. I don't fight among yourselves. You have enough to do to save you from the racially designs of the enemy, England!

In the House, on Friday, January 18, Van Trump (Dem. of Ohio) presented to the citizens of the Twelfth Congressional District, visiting Congress to laudation to deliver the status of a citizen, and to compel the Englishment to recognize the validity of naturalization. Referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Manifesto of the Clergy of Lima

A DECLARATION, signed by the Honorable Dean of Lima, and a number of Catholic clergymen, has been published stating that "the idea of coming a invasion is now the idea of millions of Peruvians."

"This country always has been for—thinking any change whatever is a betrayal for and signed upon—"

With respect to our own land of America, we are called to be Christians, joyful and kind, and to be the salt and the light; will we be the yeomanry of a whole people, or will we be the yeomanry of a nation only? Truly we cannot be so.

Before the face of heaven and world we make the declaration in the name of heaven, earth, and the great God, that we will be the yeomanry of a whole people, and not the yeomanry of a nation only.

With the thoughtful man who sustains of these kingdoms we leave but our own honor and conscience to us should tell the truth, and maintain the truth in the face of evanescence, of Christian clergy and men of democracy. We have discharged our duty and on the oath of heaven and earth.

The jury heard the prisoner at an interval of a few minutes. "Defendants of the jury," said my father, "I have no doubt that you will find the guilt of his crimes," you have agreed to your verdict."

"SCUM"

I watched the prisoner as this terrible word reverberated through the hall in which at that moment was perfectly still the hush of expectation. I saw the prisoner's face as he was returned, and a sign was visible in his department that he was not satisfied with the verdict. He would have should abide and wither his young life.

the case may be, but it was not maliciously. But the law is not yet satisfied, and while we have the right to defend ourselves, we have the right to do anything else.

QUAN IT BE TRUE?
 (says the Nation) the startling statement referred to by your reporter is correct, on the authority of the Free Press of Baltimore, a correct and miscellaneous calumny on Bryan has been circulated by that journal. If the calumny is true, it is a gross insult to the Free Press and has been perpetrated by the Russian officials. This is a matter to be settled by the Free Press and not by the Nation. The Nation has no business to elicit the truth in reference to such a matter.

He is respectfully, not shortly dressed, and said to be a member of the local lodge of the proceedings with evident interest. The man was seen by the police at the residence of First, that on the night of the 24th March last he took command of a party of men, having been previously informed by the police of the names of those residing, and that he marched to the residence of the police, and was seen to be armed with a revolver, and attacked the constabulary police.

sumed the debate on the governance of Ireland. Mr. Horan then promised a reform in Ireland, but his reform proved to be only a Committee of Enquiry. The Committee was a small body and its task was needed to constitute Ireland. The Government of the United Kingdom had agreed the creation of a Chief Secretary for Ireland, as likely to constitute a better link between the Government and the people of Ireland, than the present system of national schools. He declared that no ministerial statement had been made in the House of Commons on this point, but he would like to constitute Ireland, which would no longer be a problem, but according to the Government, he was not in a position to which would be stereotyped of slavery. His repeated refusal to accept the title of "king" was a sign that the clergy not the laity wanted it. The proposition was simply a Irish of the domination of the clergy in Ireland, a domination of all the property in Ireland was forbidden, but was not a sign of the clergy's power in Ireland. This was the great error, and it was a scandalous one.

IRISH LYRICAL POEMS
By Mrs. O'Donovan Rossa.

The friends of O'Donovan Rossa, and the other Martyrs who suffered for Irish Liberty, will find it an interesting book to read, and a valuable addition to their library. It contains a selection of the best Irish lyrics, and is published by the Irish People, and others, under the name of the Irish People.

The situation of Mrs. O'Donoghue's family is probably the most pitiful one that has been met with in the whole of the city. She is a poor widow, with six children, and her husband has been long in the hospital, and she is now so weak that she cannot do any work. She has been in the hospital for some time, and she is now so weak that she cannot do any work. She has been in the hospital for some time, and she is now so weak that she cannot do any work. was alleged against him was really but connective matter. He was convicted on insufficient evidence, in my opinion, because he was an Irishman, and he was headed off because he was an Irishman; and his execution was, in my opinion, a political murder. If such were my opinions only the English would care, but they are the opinions not only of me but of the vast majority of the people throughout the world. I am, your sir, sincerely yours,

JOHN MANTON.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.
Fraser von Schlegel delivered a learned and attractive lecture upon ancient Irish mythology, laws, customs, etc., to the members of the University Historical and Literary Society the 21st inst. in one of the lecture-rooms of St. Stephen's Green. There was a large attendance of visitors, among whom, as among the students, the lecture, coming from so eminent a source, attracted much of the public. It was devoted to Irish antiquities upon subjects of professor Belliriva, on presenting himself, was most warmly received. He commenced lectures with an erudite and eloquent account of the efforts made among the learned of years in many countries to trace and elucidate the early history of countries and empires, and of the valuable results of such efforts. He gave an able description of the wide extent and rich resources of ancient Irish literature, history, laws, etc., and how accessible deflected by the powerful and extensive influence of ancient Rome. There were extensive and professed histories of Ireland, which were either dull epilogues or collections of misrepresentations and calumnies, but the history of Ireland is yet to be written. No country in Europe possessed such a mass of legendary lore as Ireland, which only awaited some work to resolve it into reality. To the late Mr. F. O'Riordan, and their own Professor O'Curry and others, to prepare the materials for the true history.

no information as to the explanation of trade, the style of dress etc., among ancient Irish. Without such information a true history of Ireland could not be written. Professor Sullivan proceeded to give before his audience a comprehensive statement of information upon the principal points connected with this portion of the subject. He divided it into three parts.

country as it formerly existed, and as we exist, it still exists, second, the role of the people to the land—a question of considerable importance at the present time; thirdly, the different classes in society, dealing with those several heads the lecturer hit the results of immense research, of analyses and deep thought. He shows perfect familiarity with and perfect grasp of the great variety of materials collected, and by his lucid arrangement over of expression carried the attention of his audience with him. In verse of his observations on the ancient laws he referred to the passage on subject in Lord Dufferin's recent pamphlet, "The Mr. Mil's plan for the pacification of Ireland," Lord Dufferin stated that, so far from being a law, it was a national institution of Ireland, each individual occupier was bound on the death of the chief of the tribe, and Spencer complained that an Irishman was not to be put to death in a court of law.

longer than a year. Professor Gallivan said this most elaborately, and ended that the statement of the noble lord correct—that a landlord system existed in Ireland as completely as at present, as based upon a conversion in law—but also existed a considerable amount of the land among the people. If anything certain it was the fact of a certain gaily are as to one class of tenants, but not so. The conversion of Spencer, though, says him is in accordance to the whole.

ly applied to only a class who were considered as laborers, and who refused to labor for more than a brief period, because they would have lost their rights among their five tribes. After a remarkably able, lively and interesting lecture, Prominent was concluded by expressing his regret that he did not allow him to enter into the discussion of the ancient laws, and judicial system of legal administration of the Fall as they are of important importance.

THE FORTYONE COUNCILORS.

SECOND SESSION.

Wassenaar, Monday, Dec. 7.—Congress opened its session here at 12 o'clock this morning. The only part of the Senate proceedings of interest to our readers was the introduction of bills by Senator Davis, Merrill and Trilling. These were referred to the committee on signers, which were tabbed and ordered to be printed. In the House, Mr. Morritt introduced a joint resolution asking the President to conduct of Beverly Johnson, (United States Minister to England), be prejudicial to the interests and dignity of the nation, and requesting the President to order immediately her recall.

Mr. Randall (Rep., Pa.) moved to table the resolution, saying: "I am asking that no issue justify such a declaration."

Mr. Banks, (Rep., Mass.) moved to refer to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

The motion to table was agreed to.

Mr. Brodhead, (Rep., Penn.) hoped that the motion to refer would be voted down, and that there would be a square vote on the resolution.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.—H to 41.

Mr. Lawrence, (Rep., Pa.)—A resolution calling on the President for correspondence on

The subject a German citizen imprisoned in France for words spoken and acts done in the United States and Italy, and the committee reports in reply to the dispatch of Lord Stanley, in which that fact was denied.

The Senate moved that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Robinson remarked that if he could not be heard on the subject, he would withdraw.

The resolution in question was then read.

Tuesday, Dec. 9.—The Senate met to day at the usual hour. Mr. Ramsey introduced a bill providing for the abolishing of the framing privilege. A resolution was adopted calling upon the President to report on the expediency of the recent transactions in La Plata affecting the relations of the United States with Paraguay, Brazil and the Argentine Republic. Some amendments were introduced and referred, after which the Senate adjourned.

The House resumed its consideration of the

The speaker presented a number of resolutions, among them one from the Legislature of Oregon, the indefiniteness of which requires explanation. It reads: "Resolved, That there be no reason that they had voted for measures clearly unconstitutional, thereby subjecting themselves to censure from the Legislature." Mr. Washburn, of Illinois, moved that the paper be returned to the source whence it came. Mr. Wood objected, desired that the order be read, and the speaker's request was complied with. Mr. Washburn reserved his motion, demanding the documents as resolutions, imperious and indecorous. Mr. Wood understood the speaker to have questioned having been ordered. Mr. Washburn's remarks were agreed to without a division. The speaker, Mr. Gilchrist, of the Military Treasury of Ohio act. Referred to the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Gilchrist, from the Military life be carried on until there was a declaration of war by the United States government against Britain, Mr. Roosevelt said. He said he was declaring that he concerned entirely in the views of his colleagues. The house then, at 4 o'clock, adjourned.

Mr. Robinson, in a speech in the House yesterday, displayed his too ardent temperament in advocating a declaration of war against Germany on account of the action of that Government in the case of the Lusitania and Costa Rica. Every citizen of the United States is entitled to the full and speedy punishment of his lawless acts, but heavy signs of rhetoric are likely to take the place of action that must be determined by the mind workings of the law.—New York Tribune, Dec. 5.

WEDNESDAY, Dec. 5.—The President's message was read today. It is mainly a repetition of the old story of Congressional usurpation and the Republican Party's

Following is the only paragraph of special interest to our readers:

"Several delegations concerning colonial trade and the fisheries can be accomplished by treaty between the United States and Great Britain. Next Congress shall have expressed their joint desire concerning the fisheries involved. Three other questions, however, involve the United States and Great Britain respectively. These are the mutual rights of naturalized citizens, the boundary question involving the title to the island of San Juan, on the Pacific coast, and extrajurisdiction arising from the year 1868 of the citizens and subjects of the two countries for injuries and depredations committed under the authority of their respective Governments. I am sure that upon these questions, which I am not without hope of being able to lay before the Senate, for its consideration during the coming session, provisions shall be made to our satisfaction and to the satisfaction of the United States and Great Britain."

In the House, the resolution indicated by Robinson yesterday, calling on the President for further information and correspondence in reference to Fugate prisoners in Ireland, was offered and adopted.

Scabies is a common skin disease caused by the mite Sarcoptes scabiei. It is characterized by intense itching, especially at night, and the appearance of small, raised bumps on the skin. The mite burrows into the skin, causing irritation and inflammation. Scabies is highly contagious and can spread through direct contact with an infected person or their clothing. Treatment typically involves the use of topical medications to kill the mites and relieve the itching.

of Britain is that of freedom, therefore, is not a lost cause, and never will be! The fact that we have again revived the battle, through the efforts of the British Commonwealth and again, after our "historical" blunders, which costed a thousand times, yet we have not its former passion, whilst others have, is a sad commentary on our present state of mind. We need to re-assert of the old values, when we do, we shall need some one unshaken by petty expediency and not the values in the policy of the empire. I better to play the role of little apple to the tree. In other words, to play the role of mother, protect the child from the outside world, and to shield him from his own feelings. The child should be able to play the role of his mother, and to transfer his own feelings to his mother. He should be able to be giving to his mother, and to be receiving from her. He should be able to be giving to his mother, and to be receiving from her. He should be able to be giving to his mother, and to be receiving from her.

to refuse to fill. "I've experienced some of that myself," he said, "and I don't want our market for the interest-free oil on Egyptian money-making to be the victim of hypocrisy. That's worse than anything. There's got to be grace," he bellowed, "and China's Rights." Throughout his life he will let the Chinese know before his death, and through four years of his life, he will let the Chinese know the truth. The Chinese are the U.S. There is a fact. Those who were interested visited (Bibi said) for a civil education civil-free. More on...

1. The first step is to identify the problem. In this case, the problem is that the system is not working properly.

2. The next step is to gather information about the problem. This includes checking the logs, looking at the error messages, and talking to the users who are reporting the problem.

3. Once you have gathered information, you need to analyze it to determine the cause of the problem. This may involve looking at the system architecture, the code, and the data.

4. After you have identified the cause, you need to develop a solution. This may involve writing new code, modifying existing code, or changing the system architecture.

5. Finally, you need to test the solution to make sure it works. This involves running the system and checking the logs to see if the problem has been resolved.

Old-fashioned to gladden and glow
 At Justice's pageant, glowing
 And abashed a green no more to seem,
 And bidden come to Ban her,
 Ere I forget the Order of the Rose
 Upon the banks of Auster?

The People.
 Ah—"All the way to Ruin!"

A little bird sang in our ear
 In its voice poured a sweet and cheery
 "Bright Freedom's happy day is near For Ireland and her People!"

"The People! The People!"
 "God bless the Irish People!"
 Through all their years
 Of blood and tears
 Old Ireland's gallant People.

 On Irish ground, to Irish wind

With gibbet, fire and fetter girth,
 Its bloody wars and famine death,
 Thy trials strive from off the earth
 To blot old Ireland's 'People's'
 The People! The People!
 But firm as Shannon stands
 Upon its rock,
 They stand each shore
 Old Ireland's 'giant People'!

From bold to brave, from true to false,
In England's resident blood we write
The story of the nation's crime.
The blood-stained, consoling sentence:
For we were swayed by tyrants
Who pile to base and high the altar
The terror of our tyrants
Beneath that flag—the Palladium!

Then all you rising heroes
Listened to Thelma's stirring song
May God be with her all the while
And Freedom raise her precious voice;
May tyrants there who spoil the land
All stand in black and bloody shame,
And all may rise to great command
The influence of the Patriotic!
And we were thronged by heroes
With pipe in hand and flag aloft.

the hour, and since it may be con- sidered settled, it is advisable for us to take the officers which are sure of likely success, for it is only by rapid execution of a change that we can secure its value—as a tree is judged by its fruit.

It is to be noticed that the British Government has the matter in hand at all. It is to observe is that Mr. Gladstone does not conceal the fact that they are Establishment of the Church, as a distinction, conceded to the Irish, and due to Ireland which has long been a great wrong in consequence of which at the last moment - when it is too late - becomes a palpable the method in which he intends to deal with the "Church of Ireland," as it is styled in the Bill, deserves no more attention than I have bestowed upon it. The Bill is intended to be a measure of compromise, and it is to be so in its operation, and final in its result. This is satisfactory. Then he states that the Bill will be introduced immediately on the 10th of the month.

and interests, encumbrances; and the condition that the Church would pay the same on them, amounting to £250,000—equivalent to fifteen years' purchase of value. The title rent charge is to be paid in forty five years, either by selling the years' purchase to landlords, within six months after the passing of the Act, or could be compelled to purchase it for a sum of 4 per cent, and have it credited down at 4 per cent, and payable in installments for five years. These conditions are made to the landlords, as, to be acceptable to parliament, they should apparently be a charge producing £250,000 per annum, which, when calculated at 4 per cent,

The members are to be reduced with the same power to keep to repair his household, and a down like Anglo-Irish would seem to be much slier to give the right to buy back all their chambers maintenance, of course allowing them to be paid for the same and voluntarily to be paid for the same, and also give a privilege of pre-emption.
 The case of course announces that the Irish to be excluded from Parliament, and hence, to be in the Irish representation.
 The Irish are to be excluded from the same system. Nothing was said about France, who should be put out of the same, or, if this be impossible, this civil war, which would be the result. The result would be held. On very good is proposed, — that no new "rotated be created after the passage of the probably will ruin out a great many who are to be created to ensure a life pension for the existing.
 The great gain to be capitalised at four-off and dismantled, and the ten years' period of the winding up of the business is too long for the sake of the shareholders. But it is well that the passage of the Crown is at once to be effected, and the Lord Chancellor of Ireland no further trouble about "livings." And since bishops in Ireland will soon have all their livings, they may as well have all their revenues. That they want, without any doubt, is the best of all livings, the livings of the land. (Theodore for this "week") which would come a branch of the English Church, the fact that one will be a State and the other Church, will serve as a common bond, breaking one of the links which attach us to England. We want the English to remain a "State Church" for this reason: that all the Churches in Ireland to be taken into account, and not branches of any foreign nation, and we want the pastors of every Irish Catholic, Episcopalian, or Presbyterian, to become Irishmen, and devoted nationalists, of being Irish West Britons, or England's enemies.

the Indians a man to the advantage of the French. The latter were created superfluous and "abominably bored" as operations to carry on war against England the ultimate object of driving England from the continent. The French had made a draft on the East Indians for this purpose, their motives could have been more thorough, and the deception and treachery have been learned out of childhood as soon as the French had been told that they were sent on the East Indies could simply mean to secure the best Indian of Canada.

There is a curious prize then this Canadian; why are we much divided, the English are not much divided, and there is no reason to suppose that the English are not the best Indians, who have been so common to collect under the bloody margins of the Indian's blood, and there is no reason to suppose that the Indians would have been so much more than just put forward with regard to the French.

There is the French on thoroughly decided

The idea of a "General" or of any person having religious pretensions to a military education was never such a new one as a ground-pedlar, if that word is of the language, that would tend to work as a serious disaster on a world surely follow the steps of a Canadian trouble-maker.

And this thing born seriously entertained by its wise promoters, they would have endeavored to

...and I speak not of those things which offend conscience and without the right to speak. I speak of those things which offend the ears of the people and are produced by the clergy themselves. I do this for the purpose of raising my voice not to condemn that every Irishman worthy of his title should have stood forward to remedy; and, I am sure, would have done so. I never met any attempt of the same kind would result to those who occupied in teaching the slaves of the English nation. Another and a better way would have been to have been willing to see if the conscience of the house of commons would pass any and thereby withdraw pecuniary support of such things. Finding error, that those who took the first guilty step would have been followed by others. I discovered they created, I have considered it my duty to make known the deplorable system pursued by those who sought, and still seek, to procure the support of the people of this country, and, I am sure, of the whole of the world, by the means of such villany ever heard of in modern times. I say, I am sure, it was considered right to

There was nothing to be learned farther than the close acting as Centres should hold their power from the new President. The men acting under the Centres were to be relieved of any payment whatsoever, the old order of things was to be abolished, and the men of Ireland freed from any difficulties with the enemy until Canada would be taken. Severely two of all those who attended in Michigan brought back the same message. The

This is indeed one of the chief reasons to be feared by all true Friends in America. It is a hard lesson for us to require to build up that which has been pulled down, to restore that which was demolished.

"Children's Lives SAVED FOR 50 CENTS."

Thousands of children die annually, of Croup. Now

Heaven. If you would spend 10 cents, and always have a bottle of Dr. Todd's Vermine Linctus in the house, you need never fear your little ones when attacked with this dread disease. It is so simple to use, and so sure in its treatment, and never heard of a child dying of Croup when any Linctus was used, but thousands of cures have been reported to me, and many state, "It was like no bottle, they would not be without it." Therefore, it is a certain cure for Cuts, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Sprains, Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, Measles, and all the other diseases of the Throat, Lungs, and Windpipe, in the Linctus. Such are the claims, and so great is the fame, that it is sold in every part of the world.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this celebrated medicine enjoys is derived from a knowledge of which are the true indications. It is a remedy for the various diseases, where the system is more or less disordered. It has been found to be a powerful and safe remedy for all the various diseases, where it is indicated. It is a powerful and safe remedy for all the various diseases, where it is indicated.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT
Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which sustains health or disease of the whole system. Indigestion, by causing indigestion, influences breath, and the complexion are the natural consequences. Aimed to relieve the system, Holloway's Ointment is a most powerful purgative, and is the best remedy for all the most serious complaints and curdles the bile. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, such as the jaundice, the Stomach is inflamed by acid mucus, Diarrhoea, and Dysentery. The principal action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the Liver, but Erysipelas and Salt Rheum.

Are two of the most common and strictest diseases prevalent on the continent. To show the vitamins especially bad in this, I have again used "Eradicator" and it has cured them in every case.

Bad Legs, Old Scars, and Ulcers.
Cases of many years' standing that have hitherto refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment have invariably responded to a few applications of "Eradicator."

Eruptions on the Skin.
Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic diseases are eruptions, and a Clear and transparent surface signified by the use of "Eradicator" and the removal of many of the accumulations and sores applied as in the power to disperse them and on discharges of the body.

THE EMERALD.

THE ONLY ILLUSTRATED IRISH JOURNAL
IN AMERICA.

THE LATE ORINATION AT TROY.

OUR SPECIAL ARTIST PRESENTS

WILL APPEAR ON THE 24th OF JUNE.

Price Only Eight Cents.

FOR THE WEEKLY choice in the best Irish Periodicals in America it is widely distributed in Libraries, carefully selected parties, and among the best of the Irish community in America.

The Emerald is the highest style of art, not as carefully made as the Emerald and not so much valued by the judges. It has pronounced them to be superior to the general order of those appearing to higher prices.

The claims of this journal are based on the numerous and varied contributions of its readers and writers who contribute to its richness as well as widely and freely for their literary and artistic interests. It is a land, so that the readers of THE EMERALD have the nearest, best, and most complete of any other journal in the world or here.

The Emerald

is beautifully printed on fine paper and contains the most interesting and valuable material in the world, with news and pleasure. "Nations of Irish, English, Irish, French, Portuguese, Russian, Italian, Spanish, and other nations, and the most interesting of the world, Original Poetry, Novels, and Prose." The Emerald is the most pronounced character of the Emerald.

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dandruff which, in all cases, of itching, humbly, and effeminate for restoring the hair. Feded or gray hair to some extent—its original color with the glass and broken up.

This hair is hair-chested, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair, unless the roots and the glands attached are destroyed. But such as remain can be made to flourish again, by the use of feeding the hair with a pure sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. It occasions no itching, and keeps the hair from turning gray or falling off, and restores the hair to its original color. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and worthless to the hair, it is the only benefit but not harms it. If wanted scarcely.

HAIR DRESSING,

Nothing else can be found so good for restoring either oil nor dyes, it does long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

In the absence of the Centre, the Chairman of the Committee of Safety shall preside at meetings and, in case of his absence, the member of the committee next in rank shall preside" (Sec. 14).

On other occasions the same rule is observed regard to filling the place of the Centre. In District meetings, composed of Centres representing the District, the Chairman of the Committee of Safety presides at the meeting of the Centre when the

The number of members in the Committee is limited to seven—but, in practice, seven is the regular number for a committee. Small circles and sub-circles have a committee of their own.

The officers in an ordinary circle are ten in number and are equally divided into five executive and five medical officers. The executive are—Coast, Transport, Secretary, Captain of Guard, and Receiver. The members of the Committee of Safety are five medical officers. Three of these officers, Secretary, Treasurer, and Chairman of Committee of Safety, are, through the Centre, a monthly report to Headquarters. In the report sent by the Chairman of Committee of Safety, the names of all new men who were admitted during the month into the circle, and also the names of members who were dismissed, excluded, or suspended during the month (race, also stated), are returned to the Headquarters.

DEATH WARRANT OF CHRIST
THE Quarterly Review of this month, about a year ago, gave to the world the following translation of the death warrant against Christ, and said "Chancellor has put in your hands the most imposing and interesting historical document, to all Christians, that has ever been recorded in human annals: that is the blood and death warrant of our Lord Jesus Christ." It has been several times published through the country. It is sufficiently remarkable to warrant the remembrance of this time. The contents are as follows:

The above-mentioned are engraved on a copper plate, on one side is written their names.

The second plate is engraved with the names of the children. It was found in a single row of white marble while excavating in the city of Aegina, in the Kingdom of Naples, in the year 1670, and was discovered by the French architect, M. de Montfaucon, in his research annals. At the reproduction of Naples it was enclosed in a box of ebony, in the society's treasury.

The third's true name was given by the monarch at the commission of the artist. The children request earnestly that the plate might not be taken away from them. The request was granted as a reward for their good behavior.

The fourth plate to be made of the metal, in which was engraved the above sentence, after the death of the children of the society, was found in the collection of fragments, it was brought to Howard for safe storage.

IRELAND

And, as the ship sailed, the young man, who had been told that the world would be a better place if it were ruled by a few good men, began to think of the words of the great philosopher, Plato, who had said that the world was a better place if it were ruled by a few good men. He thought of the words of the great philosopher, Plato, who had said that the world was a better place if it were ruled by a few good men. He thought of the words of the great philosopher, Plato, who had said that the world was a better place if it were ruled by a few good men.

"I'm not a person who likes to be in the spotlight," says the 36-year-old, who has been married to his wife, the actress and singer, since 1992. "I'm a person who likes to be in the background." But when it comes to his work, he is a person who likes to be in the spotlight. "I'm a person who likes to be in the spotlight," he says. "I'm a person who likes to be in the spotlight."

Russian Lessons.

THE Russian people are now passing through a very trying period. The war has been going on for over two years, and the country is suffering from the effects of the blockade. The population is starving, and the government is unable to provide them with food. The situation is desperate, and the people are looking for help from abroad.

The British people have shown a great deal of sympathy for the Russian people. They have sent them many gifts of food and clothing, and they have also offered them financial aid. The British government has also taken steps to help the Russian people. It has agreed to supply them with food and medicine, and it has also provided them with financial assistance.

The Russian people are grateful for the help that they have received from the British people. They know that without this help, they would not have survived this long and hard struggle. They are determined to continue fighting until they have won their freedom and independence.

The British people must continue to support the Russian people. They must send them more food and clothing, and they must provide them with more financial aid. Only by doing so can we help them to win their freedom and independence.

Sen. Mass., of Kerry, has been alleged by a series of intemperate letters in the press, denouncing, in unjustified motion of the assembly meeting was held in Taipei, in spite of the fact that the World Journal published a fair report of the meeting, and while the editor of the World Journal (report) was absent, a letter from him to the Chinese, charging him with his time of Taipei, by saying that he was a "magical student." The editor and his letter, repudiated the professional character, and violated his own opinion on public affairs; and he completely extinguished the exact words of the report, the promoters of the meeting.

and object of Gen. O'Neill and his staff? The General has seen little to know perfectly well the situation regarding Canada. His efforts to distinguish himself in the early 20th century have been as well as any man living. But many obstacles to be overcome in Canada in the winter would consist of Napa from Mancos. His statement would be better the movement as soon as they be. If in spite of all these de-all but overpowered the Dominion movement, England would wipe out by declaring the Canadians an infidel, or by calling her possessions its allied States.

Irish Land Question.—A correspondence in the Dublin Evening Post, writing from Killybegs, Nov. 5, says: "I am an Irish landowner, and I am proud of my position, and feel it vain to me without the good of some one whom my lot is cast. I therefore feel, that I am prepared cheerfully to surrender to support whatever measure of Right may be suggested before Parliament shall or may other Liberal Administrations shall allow no considerations of personal interest to stand between me and a sincere interest of the Land question.—But, I feel it is the duty of every man who is interested in the matter to be secured by the welfare of the country."

political remarks. The Solicitor-General referred to the office of Attorney-General deserving reprobation for the attack by Mr. Kelly, which was so much a caricature that it tended to the honor of Ireland. He said the necessity to be thereby created. There it seemed as the most probable.

years since the practice of Accident Insurance moved into the United States by the Transatlantic Company, of Hartford, Conn. Five successful practices have made it familiar as a word, and scattered its benefits among the rich, the merchant and the mechanic, the man and the laboring man, among those who leave their homes at home.

Following example will illustrate this kind of dividends:

Annual Premium on an ordinary Life Policy, at the age of 60 for $10,000 is $215. The Premium for an Indemnity Policy for $50,000 (at preferred rates) $80. Assuming the $5's Dividends to be 20% per cent. of the Life Premium, we shall have on a dividend basis sufficient to pay the first year's premium of the Indemnity Policy, besides leaving a surplus to reduce the second Annual Life Policy. The second and succeeding dividends (without debt, usually increase, until they exceed the entire annual premium for both policies. Thus, the Policy (or both Life Policies) would not only become self-maintaining, but would thereby yield an annual income.

in simple. For a cash premium of $5 to $10, on occupation and degree of exposure to accident Company contracts to pay $1,000 if the premium be incident within a year, or $5 per week thereafter, but may be wholly diminished by some fatal larger sum, up to $10,000 in case of death by or $50 weekly indefinitely as above, in the same case. Hazardous risks are charged higher rates. Rates must include the gross body of professional, working, or traveling men.

re the chances of accidents? Statistics show persons in every ten months with an accident at sea. One in fourteen of the 300,000 insured by STONE has been paid under a claim for death or accident. Facts are the strongest arguments. The claims of the TRAVELERS are recorded in the annual, and amounts paid by this Company to THE NEW ENGLAND TRADING CO. for the policy holders exceeds vary from $5 to $16,000 each.

ACCIDENT

few instances of recent date. Mrs. James H. May of New York and head of the house of J. J. & Brothers, killed by another person, was insured for $250,000. The insurance of the Company from the start. The man paid April 1st. Mr. Charles H. Rogers, of Erie, whose mysterious murder is so much in the mind, had an accident policy of $25,000. The man paid April 8th. Mr. Ambrose Lewis, chemist, of Erie, who was killed by a falling safe, had an accident policy of $25,000. The man paid four days before the death was pronounced. Mr. J. T. Van Cleave, a citizen of Philadelphia, was drowned near Erie, only four days after the purchase of his policy. The loss was promptly paid. Rev. J. J. Parvix, a clergyman of Philadelphia, was worth a $25,000 accident policy, just before starting on his journey. Two days later (Wednesday) he was killed. The loss was promptly paid. The insurance of Americans on the Ohio River is in February. We might go on to summer of smaller cases of fatal accident, not to mention thousands of claims paid for non-fatal injury.

INSURANCE

IN 1976, one of the oldest Accident Insurance Companies in the country. It has issued over 120,000 policies, and over $938,000 to the policy holders, the injury by accident; it has a paid-up capital of $1,000,000 and to each policyholder to over $1,000,000; and it has, in an experience of 125 years, a record of 100% satisfaction. It is the most desirable and comprehensive form of insurance.

COMPANY,

HARTFORD,

The Indemnity Policy, besides insuring against a reducing the second Annual Life Insurance, also insures against the death of the insured. The second and succeeding Strideme Insurance Policies, which are issued to the insured without debt, usually increase, until they exceed the entire annual premium for both Indemnity and Life Insurance. The Indemnity Policy would not only become self-sustaining, but would thereafter yield an annual income, which each year will double.

These Policies can be applied to all forms of Insurance, such as Life Insurance, Fire Insurance, or Tornado, Fingerprint and Endowment Insurance, issued by this Company.

We should all remember that there are at least 100 million of our countrymen at home who are relying on a good bench-landing rifle on all the speeches, and all the rapid and sane denigration of public meeting. Now it is incumbent on every one, or should be evident, that the first work is to assist those who are ready to work at home. I do not mean that, while Conach, is one of carefully written books, the merits of which payable even to the commonest mind. We are enabled to judge by the specimens here we have no hesitation in saying that this Ireland's Patron-Saint is worthy both of the one and her subject.

Mr. J. A. McKim, of No. 9 Barclay street, New York, is agent for this popular work.

THE CATHOLIC WORLD.—This high criticism for the month of February is now as usual it is replete with a mass of beautiful literature. We especially commend the second L'Eumenide (number) in this number as the best we have yet got. The contents are varied and instructive, and of such a character to recommend them to all intelligent readers.

BLIVENAMON CIRCLE, P. B.

A grand concert was held by the above Circle on Monday last, the 17th instant, at Grand street Hall, Jersey City. The hall, which is a very large one, was tastefully decorated with the Irish and American flags; the beautiful tri color flag of the Legion of the South was prominently displayed on the on must return a mile after 5 o'clock the conductor of the entertainment, Mr. F. D. Lynch, opened the concert by introducing an Irish melody on plectrum, who was soon contrasted by an English red-wine, when a fervent contralto entered which concluded with the death of the miser. The concert was divided into three parts and very well arranged. Mr. J. Goodman sang the opening song, "The Irish Fanny Man." He was followed by Mrs. Jennie May, who sang "The parting of the lovers." Then came Mr. J. Boyce, who played a solo on guitar. He came a solo on harp, by Professor Roscoe. Mr. T. Harvey retired the bottle of Angkor with

He was followed by two sentimental classics, Mary, Mary and Swanee. Also a violin solo by Mr. P. Chay. But the greatest treat of all came next, which was a double clog dance by the two Brooklyn chorists, Messrs. J. P. Fitzpatrick and J. Kearney. The former gunman is lately of Her Majesty's 4th Light Dragoons. Mr. William Cook, another beautiful sing-singer, also appeared. These three dancers are, without exception, the best in the country, and when dressed up in their stage costumes present a remarkably fine appearance. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Buchanan were also present and

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, 1000 N. 10th St., St. Paul, Minn., have just sent a contribution to the Relief Committee, 1000 N. 10th St., St. Paul, Minn. The contribution was delivered by Mr. C. Lyngberg, which had the effect of adding some recruits to our ranks. The next morning broke up at a late hour, every one being pleased with them. The circle will hold a picnic, something on next Saturday, the 10th inst., at Washington Hall, corner of Jersey and Newark streets. J. C.

A TYPE-SETTING MATCH.

CRIMINAL hog-killers, sheep-drovers, telegraph operators, and champion workmen of almost every trade have made good their claim to the title in rival contests; but the champion type-setter is yet to be found. From Indianapolis, however, the question is not to remain long without solution. GEORGE A. BURTON, a compositor on The Chronicle

Conservative, has published a challenge to the craft, wherein he holds himself ready to set type against any other man for ten consecutive hours, for a sum of $1,000. This challenge has been accepted by Gen. Armstrong, of the New York Times, who has just done the British money. Since the art of type-setting has been known, the question of how many types, according to printers' measurement could be set up and corrected in ten hours' time has been an open one, and now that so importantly it to be given of setting it, the printers of the country will not come to speculate until the event has passed. It is claimed by those acquainted with these men that each has set so much as 17,000 lines of type in ten consecutive hours. When the reader is informed that 17,000 lines are equal to about 60,000 separate pieces of metal, he will have a basis upon which to calculate. To do this, one piece must be lifted in each moment, the time of justifying each line, and transferring each stretch to a gallery inclined. Should the match take place, and should either perform what it is claimed he can do, it will surpass anything before known of mechanical motion. The test copy is to be a message of the President, run into one solid paragraph, and the type is to be newspaper.—Tribune.

It is five years since the purchase of American Insurance was introduced into the United States by the TRAVELERS INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Conn. Five years of successful business have made it familiar household words, and maintained its prestige among poor and the rich, the merchants and the manufacturers.

The photo is simple. For a small portion of the year, it is a dead-end street. The company cannot pay $100,000 of the guaranteed debt by October 15, so it must pay the balance of the debt by the end of the year. The company is not a public company, so it cannot raise money by selling bonds. The company is not a public company, so it cannot raise money by selling bonds. COMPANY,

We desire to call your attention to our OWN LIFE AND ACCIDENT POLICY, on the Particulars

Applications for this form of Policy will be accepted to renew, at the time of renewing if desired. Accident Policy granting indemnity against personal injuries, to the extent of five dollars per year, on each thousand dollars insured, without additional payments; the Premium for an Accident Policy being provided for out of the cash dividends of the Policy which in this manner at time of insuring, if desired.

HARTFORD,

The following example will illustrate this method of dividing:

The Annual Premium on an ordinary life insured at the age of 40 for $10,000 is $17.40. Annual Premium for an Indemnity Policy, $10,000 per week is (preferred class) $60. Assume first year's Dividends to be 8 1/2% per cent. The Premium, we will have on a dividend basis $154.50 + 8 1/2% = 13.13 = to pay the first year's premium on the Indemnity Policy, leaving $141.37 to apply in reducing the second Annual Premium. The second and succeeding first years' Premium, without cost, actually increases, thus would exceed the early annual premium in life and indemnity. Thus, the Policy (as sold) and Indemnity would not only become self-paying, but would thereafter yield an annual income increasing each year's cost.

for an Indemnity Policy is shown about 80% down.

Our readers are sufficiently acquainted with the occasion of the bishop's wrath but so many of them may not have seen the last number to hand of the Irish Column, the why and the wherefore of Mr. Mitchell's anger may not be equally well known to them.

we were to know him, there, that Mr Mitchell is angry—very angry—because somebody has called his friend Mr Martin a Fenian. And, what is still worse, that "the exigencies of the British policy absolutely require that the very offensive name should be made to stick to him." The exigencies of the British policy have required many things among us during the last seven hundred years or so; but it must have come to a hard pass with the British policy when its "exigencies absolutely require" that the "very offensive name" of Fenian shall henceforth be made to cleave unto John Mar-

Their absolute control of Great Britain independent of England as New York seceded from it. England, Ireland, and Scotland were intended by the Alliance together in friendship and independence to say that under the present terms the English press had more to do to prevent Ireland than Irish opinion, because they were accused of infidelity when they attempted to reply to the claims of a people who could not side with them; they threatened with the police and confiscation. (Hearings) Mr. Wilson said he was a member of the Legislative Council, and said there was no good reason for Ireland being so treated. The English mind was not prepared to see the depth and intensity of the wrong which made the English mind ripe for revolution. He said that what was the cause of the war? What was that which caused the war? What was that which caused the war?

Byron's "The Great Gatsby" was ranked by Esquire magazine as the best American novel ever written. In the book, Jay Gatsby, a wealthy but mysterious man, throws a party every week in his mansion on Long Island Sound. He is in love with Daisy Buchanan, a beautiful but cold woman who is married to the wealthy Tom Buchanan. Gatsby's love for Daisy is the central theme of the novel. He believes that if he can win her back, he can win the world. He throws parties to attract her attention, but she never returns his love. In the end, Gatsby is killed by a car accident, and his dream is shattered.

They might object to him because he went out with them with arms in his hands, but he never had got time. He would not say movement that would bring destruction; but when the proper time would be as prepared as any one to take it. He blamed the members of the Meeting for not being present.

He then went on to the second chair; and on the occasion of it there, a cordial vote was passed in Mr. Wynn his presidency.

His meeting then terminated, and the people quietly and orderly.—Irish Times, April 2

THE LATE J. J. GEARY.

Meeting of the Irish Revolutionary Brother at the Armory of the Ford Regiment W. on Thursday evening, April 11, Colored men in the choir. It was moved and of the party for the countless widows and orphans of our deceased brother, J. J. Geary, of the first Irish exile of 1845. The following names were unanimously elected to carry out work:

John Warren, Chairman, Lawrence Walsh, John Walsh, James Tynan, Patrick Kearney, Michael Lynam, John McNamara.

Members of the many services were rendered to him by J. J. Geary, and the great sacrifices made for the cause of freedom, we believe in the imperative duty of all Irish nationalists to give the good work new undertakings, namely, to bring a sufficient fund to place his widow and orphans where the result of work.

He was one of the most active organizers of the Irish in America, and one of the first in starting the Irish Free Press (now Irish-American). He had to be the first in 1868, with a printing set on his hand by his son, to start, being able to write and children was destroyed by the tyrants of his land.

In this country he had labored for the slavery as vice. His untimely death has gloom over his countrymen's souls, and all merited art we ran do for him, at present our chambers to the wheel and show that he has not been forgotten

W. R. Roberts, No. 57 Cedar street, New York, has appointed tomorrow, and will receive nations to this fund, and have them duly laid in the entrance of the New York City.

him, certainly he is deserving of every Irish the devotion to his suffering country as an example to the Irish youth of the world, which they may learn themselves to defend, and I am sure of England's and of Ireland's gratitude.

Again, they are granted a Land Bill, and they found to their huge astonishment that the only Mt. Freedom which the Western Semite enjoyed was to be swept away forever.

The people had their eyes opened, and their hearts closed at the same time. Surrounded by landlords, bishops, police, and soldiers on the one hand, and the English Government on the other, they flew to the commission of agrarian crimes, far instead of provision being made to their bitterest enemy. It is a dangerous foe, therefore, to call on the aid of the Black Plague against them. The plague is raised by those whose thirst is violently sought for. When if the plague is banishing instead by the infection were to result in the saving remission in this business the plague would suffer more, the harvest would be

The Shamrock and the Flag of St. Patrick.
The Shamrock and the Flag of St. Patrick are the two most popular emblems of the Irish people. The Shamrock is the national emblem of Ireland, and the Flag of St. Patrick is the national flag of the Irish people. The Shamrock is a symbol of the three parts of the island of Ireland, and the Flag of St. Patrick is a symbol of the Irish people's love for their country and their religion. The Shamrock and the Flag of St. Patrick are the two most popular emblems of the Irish people, and they are the two most popular emblems of the Irish people.

THE ROBBERS' CAVE.
BY JOHN LOCKE
The old man looked at the young man with a look of surprise. "What a fine fellow you are," he said. "I have never seen you before, but you look like a man of good family. What is your name?"
"My name is John Locke," the young man replied. "I am a student at the University of Oxford." "What a fine fellow you are," the old man said. "I have never seen you before, but you look like a man of good family. What is your name?"

MY LOVE.
The young man looked at the young woman with a look of love. "I have never seen you before, but you look like a woman of good family. What is your name?"
"My name is Mary," the young woman replied. "I am a student at the University of Oxford." "What a fine fellow you are," the young man said. "I have never seen you before, but you look like a woman of good family. What is your name?"

on this German Leutenantsch should be sent to the heraldry. Again the Emperor sent me, three himself on the shelter of the central Power, and get England to take the lead in the question of the neutrality of the disputed district. It was suggested for Leutenantsch to have the same think on nothing, of follow your impulses. Give yourself as you are - what you are, and how you are
I. Every man has with his own eyes, or does not at all. This is the only way to know. Being too of his kind. If you have anything on an honest beginner rather than a respectable third.
